

2016-2017 Minnesota Family Investment Program (MFIP)
Biennial Service Agreement (BSA)

The Aitkin County Health and Human Services is developing a plan to implement the Minnesota Family Investment Program (MFIP) Biennial Service Agreement (BSA) for 2016-2017. Citizen input is incited in the development of this Biennial Service Agreement with the Minnesota Department of Human Services.

The MFIP Consolidated Fund provides funding for services counties and tribes must provide by law, and for other services counties may provide to eligible families. These services include Minnesota Family Investment Program (MFIP), Diversionary Work Program (DWP), MFIP and DWP Employment & Support Services, Family Stabilization Services (FSS), Extension Services for MFIP cases approaching the 60-month limit & Emergency Assistance (EA).

The method by which the Aitkin County Health and Human Services will provide opportunity for public participation is by submission of questions or written comments to:
